We carry out Equality Impact Assessments (EIAs) to analyse the effects of our decisions, policies or practices. The EIA should be undertaken/started at the beginning of the policy development process – before any decisions are made.

1. Overview

The main aims/objectives of this policy<sup>1</sup> are:
To outline the Council’s Code of Practice for the management, administration and operation of the borough’s Closed Circuit Television scheme, including the objectives of the scheme, how data will be managed and processed, and to whom and in what circumstances data will be disclosed.
The purpose of the Code is to ensure that good practice standards are maintained, that the Council continues to operate within the law and helps to foster public confidence that the Council and its officers take their responsibilities seriously.

2. Equality Impact

Using the table below please indicate whether the policy/strategy/decision has a positive, negative or no impact from an equalities perspective on any of the protected equality groups listed below. Please also give consideration to wider equality of opportunity and community cohesion impacts within and between the groups identified. If you have identified any negative impact and mitigating actions are not sufficient, you will need to complete a Full Equality Impact Assessment.

Equality		Positive Impact (It could benefit)	Negative Impact (It could disadvantage)	Reason and any mitigating actions already in place (to reduce any adverse /negative impacts or reasons why it will be of positive benefit or contribution)	No Impact
Age	Older people	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	The scheme itself will bring a positive impact to the wider population / community. The CCTV scheme is not targeted at or intended to have an adverse impact on any protected equality group. Further, it is recognised that vulnerable groups can be subject to more antisocial behaviour and crime than other members of the community, therefore this scheme could have a positive impact on these groups in particular as the purpose of the scheme is to: (a) Reducing the fear of crime (b) Deterring and preventing crime (c) Assisting in the maintenance of public order and tackling offences involving vandalism and nuisance (d) Providing high quality evidence which may assist in the detection of crime and the apprehension and prosecution of offenders and this may assist with the prevention or detection and successful prosecution of a hate crime associated with a particular equality group / vulnerable groups in the community.	<input type="checkbox"/>
