

Greenfield Ward Profile 2018

Issue
Child Poverty	Significantly better than England average
Older People in Deprivation	Significantly better than England average
Child Development at age 5	Not significantly different
GCSE achievement 5 A*-C including English and Maths	Not significantly different
Limiting long term illness or disability	Significantly worse than England Average
General Health bad or very bad	Significantly better than England average
Fuel Poverty	Not significantly different
Pensioners living alone	Not significantly different
Children with excess weight Year 6	Not significantly different
Emergency hospital admissions 0-4 year old	Significantly worse than England Average
Binge drinking adults	Not significantly different
Emergency Hospital admissions all causes	Significantly worse than England Average
All cancer	Not significantly different
Hospital stays for self-harm	Significantly worse than England Average
Hospital stays for alcohol related harm	Not significantly different
Emergency admissions for hip fracture 65+	Not significantly different
Death due to circulatory disease	Not significantly different
Death due to heart disease	Significantly worse than England Average death due to all causes under 65	Not significantly different
Life expectancy for males	Not significantly different
Life expectancy for females	Not significantly different
Likelihood of Social Isolation and Loneliness	Low Risk
Call to the police about anti-social behaviour*	Not significantly different
Calls to the police about domestic violence*	Not significantly different
Violence against the person*	Not significantly different
Domestic Burglary*	Not significantly different
All drug offences*	Not significantly different

Key:

	Significantly better than England average
	Not significantly different Significantly worse than England Average

	Social Isolation
	Very Low Risk
	Low Risk
	Medium Risk
	High Risk

Crime

* recorded Nov 16-Oct 17

Crime figures are based on comparison to Rossendale average