Re: Emerging Local Plan

Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing in response to the proposed housing developments in Loveclough.

I feel I must object to these proposals in the strongest possible terms. I understand that previously agreed draft plans have limited development in this area and several applications have already been rejected by Rossendale Borough Council. The current proposals are a complete failure of the Authority to have consulted with the local community or to have taken into account the already grossly overcrowded road links and the capacity of the local school.

The Council appear to have ridden rough shod over all the views of the local people. A fresh consultation is absolutely essential.

Yours faithfully

Judith Morrison
