- 2.5.1 the Planning Permission shall be quashed revoked or otherwise withdrawn;
- 2.5.2 the Planning Permission shall expire prior to the Commencement of the Development;
- 2.5.3 development of the Site shall be commenced (here meaning the carrying out of "material operation" as defined by Section 56(4) of the Act) pursuant to any other planning permission granted with respect to the Site.
- 2.6 This Agreement is a local land charge and shall be registered as such on its completion by the Parties
- 2.7 For the purposes of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999) nothing in this Agreement shall confer on any third party any right to enforce any benefit or any terms of this Agreement.
- 2.8 The Owners hereby covenant with the Council to perform the obligations specified in the Schedule to this Agreement so far as they shall derive legal title to the Site or any part thereof.
- 2.9 The Owners hereby covenant with the Council to observe the covenants
- 2.10 Wherever in this Agreement there is reference to the Council giving its approval to any matter or scheme that reference is on the basis that such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- 2.11 Where any dispute or difference arises between the Owners and the Council or any such person or organisation deriving a legal title to the Site and the Council in respect of this Agreement either party to such dispute or difference shall be entitled to have the matter referred to the determination of an expert ("the Appointed Expert") having not less than 10 years' relevant experience in the field of the matter in dispute and being a member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors. The identity of such person in default of agreement being an appointment made on the application of either party at any time by or on behalf of the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors provided in that in the absence of a direction by the Appointed Expert in accordance with this clause as to how costs of the reference to the Appointed Expert should be borne as between the parties to the dispute the parties shall bear their own costs and shall share equally the costs and charges of the Appointed Expert.

2.12 The Appointed Expert shall:

- 2.12.1 Afford to each of the parties to the dispute an opportunity to make representations to him/her in writing and if he/she so directs submissions upon one another's representations;
- 2.12.2 Be entitled to stipulate the periods of time for the making of such representations as is reasonable in the circumstances;
- 2.12.3 Be bound to have regard to such representations;
- 2.12.4 Have the power of making directions as to the responsibility for the costs of his/her award (including both the costs of the relevant parties and the cost and charges of the Appointed Expert) to be met by any party behaving unreasonably;
- 2.12.5 In the making of his/her award not to be liable save to the extent in law as provided in relation to discussions of an Expert;
- 2.12.6 Make awards which are final and conclusive as between the parties to the dispute (except that such award shall not remove the parties' right of appeal on matters of law and any manifest material error);

and

2.12.7 Be replaced by a fresh appointee in the event of his/her becoming at any time unable or unwilling for any reason to discharge his/her function such fresh appointee to be appointed in the manner prescribed in this clause.

2.13 Any notice or other communication given or made in accordance with this Agreement shall be in writing, shall be sent by recorded delivery, shall be deemed to have been properly served on the date following the date on which such notice or communication was posted, and shall unless otherwise notified to all the Parties in writing be sent to:
